The Officer Review Committee shall report its verdict and judgment, and reasons therefor, to the AAUP-UC members in good standing at a membership meeting called for that purpose. The accused officer(s) may attend the meeting.

In the case of a verdict of acquittal, such verdict and judgment shall become final upon being reported at said membership meeting and no further action shall be taken.

In the case of a verdict of guilty, such verdict and judgment shall become effective upon approval by a majority vote by secret ballot of the members in good standing voting at said membership meeting.

If such verdict is not approved by such majority of votes cast the accused shall stand acquitted.

If the verdict of guilty is approved by such majority of votes cast, it shall be considered official and the Secretary (or other appropriate officer if the Secretary is the accused or has a conflict of interest) shall notify the accused officer in writing by receipted or certified mail of the verdict and judgment resulting from that meeting.

If the accused does not appeal the guilty verdict within ten (10) days of the postmark of such notice, the verdict will be considered final and binding.

Section 13: Appeal of Guilty Verdict

a. The accused may appeal a verdict of guilty in Section 12. Such appeal shall be heard by the Appeals Committee, who shall follow the applicable procedures in Sections 9-12 of this Article. Timelines may be adjusted as appropriate in the interest of justice, provided reasonable timelines are followed.

b. If, after the Appeals Committee calls a membership meeting and a verdict of guilty and a penalty is approved by the membership in accordance with the procedures in Section 11, the verdict and penalty shall be considered final, the accused shall be removed from office, and the accused shall have exhausted all appeals.

Section 14: Future Service Prohibition

If an officer is removed for serious misconduct in accordance with this Article, that officer shall be prohibited from serving as an AAUP-UC officer, negotiator, grievance officer, employee, committee member, or other representative of the AAUP-UC for thirteen (13) years from the date that person was removed from office.
Section 15: Resignation/Leaving Office Prior To Hearing

If an officer charged with serious misconduct resigns or leaves office prior to trial, the hearing shall still take place and the procedures in this Article will still be followed.

ARTICLE XII: INTERNAL GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

a. Any member may file a written grievance with the Governing Board over any alleged violation of these Bylaws. This request must include a statement of the relief sought and must be presented within ninety (90) days of the alleged occurrence of the action giving rise to the grievance. If the Governing Board feels there is possible justification in the complaint brought by the grievant, it will appoint an Internal Grievance Committee of three (3) members in good standing within ten (10) days of receiving such a grievance.

b. The Internal Grievance Committee shall hold a hearing, but will not be bound by the formal rules of legal evidence on the matter it is charged with investigating. It will render a recommendation on the grievance, and, if appropriate, it will recommend relief. This relief may be other than that requested by the grievant. The Internal Grievance Committee must make its final report within sixty (60) days of its formation by the Governing Board. The Internal Grievance Committee’s recommendation will be final and binding on the Union, unless appealed in writing to the Governing Board by a principal party to the proceedings. The basis of the appeal shall be limited to whether to accept the recommendation(s) of the Internal Grievance Committee.

c. If a written request for appeal is lodged with the Governing Board within ten (10) days of the issuance of the report of the Internal Grievance Committee, a vote of the members in good standing must be taken on the appeal. This must occur within thirty (30) days of the filing of the written request for appeal. The vote will be limited to whether or not to accept the final recommendations of the Internal Grievance Committee. The vote shall be taken at a membership meeting called for this purpose and a majority vote of the members in good standing voting at the meeting shall be used.

d. The vote of the members in good standing who attend this meeting shall, in all cases, be final and binding on the Union.

e. Any member in good standing who has a conflict of interest shall be recused from any considerations or proceedings concerning such grievance.

f. Any member in good standing is required to exhaust internal union hearing procedures, not to exceed four (4) months, before filing any lawsuit or initiating any administrative proceedings related to his/her rights as a member as provided for by federal and/or state law.
ARTICLE XIII: DISSOLUTION

The AAUP-UC cannot be dissolved while there are seven (7) members in good standing who vote to continue its existence.

Section 1: Dissolution Vote

A secret ballot vote of all members in good standing must be taken in order to dissolve the chapter. If seven (7) members in good standing dissent on a vote to dissolve the chapter, the chapter cannot be dissolved.

Section 2: Distribution of Assets In The Event Of Dissolution

a. Should the chapter be dissolved, all AAUP-UC assets, including all investment funds, shall be placed into a trust for a period of three (3) years, during which time such AAUP-UC assets shall be returned to the AAUP-UC if it is reconstituted.

b. If the chapter is dissolved and is not reconstituted within three (3) years, its books and records shall become property of the National AAUP.

c. Should the AAUP-UC not reconstitute after such three (3) year period, the AAUP-UC financial assets shall be distributed to the AAUP Foundation as follows: Fifty (50) percent of the assets shall be distributed to the AAUP Foundation Legal Defense Fund and fifty (50) percent of the assets shall be distributed to the AAUP Foundation Academic Freedom Fund.

d. Should dissolution occur, under no circumstances shall the AAUP-UC distribute its funds, assets, or properties individually among its membership. No member or officer of the chapter, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the assets of the chapter upon dissolution of the chapter.

ARTICLE XIV: COMPLIANCE WITH STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS

If an AAUP-UC Bylaw is determined to be out of compliance with federal and/or New York State law(s), the AAUP-UC Governing Board will follow the law(s) and propose appropriate changes to the AAUP-UC Bylaws, as soon as practicable. A meeting shall be called to present the proposed changes to the members in good standing for approval, as provided for in Article XV.

ARTICLE XV: AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended at any meeting by a majority of the members in good standing, that is, more than fifty (50) percent, unless the proposed amendment has been submitted to the membership in writing and announced in the call for the meeting at which action is to be taken, in which case a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members in good standing present and voting shall be required.
